

Society of Catholic Priests — Daily Prayer Cycle

Day 1 – for catholic priestly formation and the continuance of the tradition of an Anglican catholic priestly spirituality
Blackburn and Liverpool chapter

Day 2 – for all those contemplating the priestly vocation
Canterbury chapter

Day 3 – for all members of the Society experiencing difficulty in their work or with colleagues in ministry
Chelmsford chapter

Day 4 – for the rector and vice-rector of the Society and for the work of the provincial council: that it may help the membership to grow in faith and action
Chichester chapter

Day 5 – for the fostering of vocations and those coming to share in the catholic vision of priesthood and ministry
Derby chapter

Day 6 – for the secretary, treasurer, and membership-secretary of the Society in their roles
Durham and Newcastle chapter

Day 7 – for the communications and vocations officers: that they may be enabled to spread our vision more widely
Ely chapter

Day 8 – for members of our Society who are lonely or isolated in their lives or their ministry
Europe chapter

Day 9 – for chapters planning the Society's conferences and specially for Exeter chapter planning this year's conference
Exeter chapter

Day 10 – for those now retired from full-time ministry: that their prayer life and vocation may continue to be fed
Gloucester chapter

Day 11 – for those of our Society seeking God's guidance for their future; those seeking to move: that they may find God's will for them especially where the Church seems to stand in the way
Guildford chapter

Day 12 – for those beyond the European province who find our way of life attractive: that the Society may be enabled to grow world-wide
Church of Ireland chapter

Day 13 – for members about to take on a new post: that they may be upheld by God and sustained in their ministry by our Society's prayer
Llandaff & Monmouth chapter

Day 14 – for the visitor of each chapter and the pastoral oversight of our bishops
London chapter

Day 15 – for our sisters and brothers who are ill at home, in hospital or a hospice, the frail and the elderly
Manchester chapter

Day 16 – for those who serve in parishes of a different tradition to their own; those who live with difficult situations in their area or diocese
Oxford chapter

Day 17 – for our links with Affirming Catholicism and others sympathetic to our traditions: that the vision of God at work in our life, our Church and in society may be deepened
Peterborough chapter

Day 18 – for our life of prayer and dedication and for the blessing of a constantly renewed vision for our future
Portsmouth chapter

Day 19 – for the ministry of women as bishops in the Anglican communion that this ministry may be extended to the English provinces
Ripon & Leeds chapter

Day 20 – for our brothers and sisters serving as members of their Synods or governing bodies: that they may speak wisely and their voices may be heard
Rochester chapter

Day 21 – for members of the Society working in healthcare, prison, education and other chaplaincies
St Albans chapter

Day 22 – for the repose of the souls of the departed members of our Society
St Asaph chapter

Day 23 – for those who are exploring our Society with a view to membership
St Davids chapter

Day 24 – for catholic evangelism and the blessing of the nation in which we live; for the parishes in which the members of our Society serve
Sheffield chapter

Day 25 – for Rowan, Archbishop of Canterbury, the patron of our Society
Southwark chapter

Day 26 – for the Anglican Communion and all the Primates worldwide
Southwell & Nottingham chapter

Day 27 – for members of the Society ministering in secular employment
Wakefield and Bradford chapter

Day 28 – for all working in theological colleges and courses and in ministerial formation
Worcester chapter

Day 29 – for all ordinands exploring the vision of our Society: that those in training may know and share the vision our Society offers the church
York chapter

Day 30 - in thanksgiving for the foundation of the Society and for its continuing vision.
Dearmer Society

Day 31 - for a deepening of faith and devotion in an inclusive church.
Chapters coming into being

